Visit the NVMM for a Washington ($1) on Presidents Day!
Presidential Trivia with prizes, Scavenger Hunt and more Hands-On Activities

(COLUMBUS, Ohio) – For a Washington (one dollar) admission, guests can experience the National Veterans Memorial and Museum (NVMM) and enjoy special programming on Presidents Day, Monday, February 19.

“We are welcoming families and friends to the NVMM on Presidents Day to learn about Veterans who became U.S. Presidents and enjoy fun, hands-on activities for a Washington, making it an affordable educational opportunity,” said Andy Cloyd, NVMM museum director. “Guests of all ages connect with U.S. history through our core story-telling exhibitions as well as our current traveling exhibition, Lost Man Blues: Jon Schueler – Art and War.”

Special activities for Presidents Day include:

- Presidential Trivia with prizes at noon and 2 p.m.
- Presidential Scavenger Hunt in the museum throughout the day
- Hands-on Navigation Activity featuring our newest exhibition, Lost Man Blues: Jon Schueler – Art and War. Guests can track John Schueler’s flight path from a January 1943 bombing run to St. Nazaire using navigation instruments.
- Explore real flight computers in the Tuskegee Airmen Alcove.

Additionally, the NVMM is participating in America 250-Ohio’s Fourth Grade History Pass which provides free museum admission to each Ohio fourth grader accompanied by a paying adult.

About the National Veterans Memorial and Museum

The museum takes visitors on a narrative journey telling individual stories and sharing experiences of Veterans from all military branches throughout history, both during their service and as they continue serving in our communities. History is presented in a dynamic, participatory experience with photos, letters and personal effects, multimedia presentations, interactive exhibits, online events and digital content. Together, these elements link our national story to the larger context of our world. For more information, please visit NationalVMM.org. The National Veterans Memorial and Museum is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization and does not receive federal funding.
