National Veterans Memorial and Museum Closed Until April 8, 2020

COLUMBUS, Ohio -- After careful consideration of the growing public health concerns about COVID-19, the National Veterans Memorial and Museum is cancelling all meetings, programs and events and closing to the public from Friday, March 13 until Wednesday, April 8, 2020.

The health and welfare of our visitors, supporters, and team is our number one priority. We feel this is in the best interest of our community at this time. This is in line with guidance from the Centers for Disease Control, the Ohio Department of Health, and Ohio Governor Mike DeWine.

We encourage you to visit our website often and watch our social media channels to receive updates and stay engaged with us.

Thank you for your continued support as we contend with this unprecedented public health crisis.

We look forward to re-opening our doors to the public.

About the National Veterans Memorial and Museum

The National Veterans Memorial and Museum takes visitors on a narrative journey telling individual stories and shared experiences of Veterans from all military branches throughout history. The National Veterans Memorial and Museum pays tribute to the sacrifices of men and women in service and their families. History is presented in a dynamic, participatory experience with photos, letters and personal effects, multi-media presentations, and interactive exhibits. Together, these elements link our national story to the larger context of world.
