Experience inspiring stories of service from our Veterans, both during their military service and after, as they continue to serve in our communities. The new question on our National Conversation Board encouraging thought and engagement based on Dr. King’s contributions will be: “How will you change the world?”

Those attending the Columbus Martin Luther King, Jr. March starting (4:30 p.m.) and ending at City Hall (90 W. Broad St.) are invited to visit the museum prior to the march. Guests are welcome to park at the Museum ($5) and walk across the bridge to City Hall for the March and program.

NOTE: Veterans, Gold Star Families and Active-Duty Military receive free admission every day.
