Visit the NVMM Independence Day Weekend

Discover Stories of Freedom from Veterans on the Frontlines of History

COLUMBUS, Ohio – There is no better place to celebrate our nation’s independence this coming weekend than the National Veterans Memorial and Museum (NVMM), where we share the Veteran experience and our nation’s history from the Revolutionary War to present day through the stories of Veterans.

Weekend Programming

Guests on July 2 and 3, can participate in special activities created to educate families and children about the importance of Independence Day. Learn how to properly fold an American flag, design your own flag and take part in special tour opportunities. (All necessary materials for participation in the activities will be provided by the Museum.)

Holiday Weekend Schedule

- July 1: NVMM closed for private event
- July 2: Open 10 a.m. – 5 p.m. with special programming
- July 3: Open 10 a.m. – 5 p.m. with special programming
- July 4: NVMM closed in observance of Independence Day

Support the NVMM at Land Grant Brewing Company on July 3

Land Grant is hosting a launch celebration of Four Pillars Pale Ale in support of the National Veterans Memorial and Museum. The NVMM will receive 10 percent of the proceeds from purchases of Land Grant’s Four Pillars beer and of Homage apparel items from their pop-up shop at Land Grant.

About the National Veterans Memorial and Museum

The National Veterans Memorial and Museum takes visitors on a narrative journey telling individual stories and sharing experiences of Veterans from all military branches throughout history. The National Veterans Memorial and Museum pays tribute to the sacrifices of men and women in service and their families. History is presented through a dynamic, participatory experience with photos, letters and personal effects, multi-media presentations, and interactive exhibits.
